Live Telecast Event of the Presidential Inauguration and Avenida Guadalupe Association's 30th Anniversary Announcement

San Antonio, TX – Together with community and city leaders, sponsors, and supporters, Avenida Guadalupe Association presents their 30th Anniversary Celebration announcement, with a private lunch & live telecast of this historical Presidential Inauguration on Tuesday, January 20, 2009 at at El Progreso Hall, 1306 Guadalupe Street, 9 am – 1:30 pm, lunch & Avenida program right after President Elect Barack Obama's Inaugural Address.

30th Anniversary Celebration events will be announced as well as a limited edition, commemorative Presidential Inauguration Avenida Guadalupe Poster will be presented to those in attendance.

Avenida Guadalupe Association is known for hosting international dignitaries that range from Pope John Paul II to the President of Mexico. Avenida Guadalupe claimed national status when President Elect Barack H. Obama chose Plaza Guadalupe as the hosting site for his February 2008 campaign visit in San Antonio. President Elect Obama drew a crowd of over 8,000 to our beloved Westside of San Antonio.

In partnership with Time Warner Cable, Avenida will offer a live telecast of the Inauguration Ceremony. The event will offer a seated luncheon with past, present and future partners, leaders of San Antonio and others who have been and continue to be instrumental in the success of this organization.

"This is going to be a phenomenal year for Avenida, the Westside, and the entire city of San Antonio. We are gathering to celebrate Avenida's anniversary, but also to celebrate a new beginning, a new Presidential Administration and to reaffirm our promise to continue to work diligently towards empowering our community, developing our commerce, and honoring our culture" Raul Lomeli, Avenida Guadalupe Association Board Chairman.

Estimate attendance is approximately 150 guests to this invitation only event.
